

Money

Instructions for use: Fill out using Acrobat Reader then save to your PC once completed.

You may use a calculator to help you complete these questions.

Task 1

You buy a jar of coffee for £4.20, a loaf of bread for 97p and a jar of jam for £1.67.

1) How much have you spent in total?

£

2) What is the difference between cost of the jar of coffee and the jar of jam?

£

Task 2

Tom buys a newspaper for 20p, a juice carton for £1 and a chocolate bar for 85p. He pays with a five-pound note.

1) How much did Tom spend?

£

2) How much change will Tom get?

£

3) What was the cost of the chocolate bar, rounded to the nearest ten pence?

£

4) What was the cost of the chocolate bar, rounded to the nearest pound?

£