Changes to the Ways Individuals and Society are Defended and Protected

Instructions for use: Fill out using Acrobat Reader then save to your PC once completed.

Task 1

Give some examples of how different Public Services may use surveillance.

| Police  Armed Forces  Fire Service  Security at the NHS  Task 2  The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.  You need to create and explain an argument for the use of surveillance to protect our society | Public Service  | How they use surveillance |
|--|---|---------------------------|
| Fire Service  Security at the NHS  Task 2  The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.  | Police  |                           |
| Fire Service  Security at the NHS  Task 2  The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.  |   |                           |
| Security at the NHS  Task 2  The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.  | Armed Forces  |                           |
| Security at the NHS  Task 2  The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.  |   |                           |
| Security at the NHS  Task 2  The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.  | Fire Service  |                           |
| Task 2 The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.  |   |                           |
| Task 2 The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.  | Convituat the NUIC  |                           |
| The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.   | Security at the NHS   |                           |
| The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.   |   |                           |
| The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.   |   |                           |
|  | Task 2  |                           |
| You need to create and explain an argument for the use of surveillance to protect our society  | The Government are questioning whether they should continue to use surveillance.              |                           |
|  | You need to create and explain an argument for the use of surveillance to protect our society |                           |
|  |   |                           |
|  |   |                           |
|  |   |                           |
|  |   |                           |
|  |   |                           |
|  | T .   |                           |